鉄板焼き Teppanyaki

Means "grilled on an iron plate" and is a Japanese method of cooking where food is prepared live in front of the guest to add a personalised touch with flames, flair and fun.

Teppanyaki is always treated as a shared social experience, so you may end up making some new friends at your table, as one cooking station can hold up to 11 guests.

ORDERING OPTIONS

1. Katana's signature 3 course set menu, including a mixed starter platter & a dessert.
2. Pick your own starters, mains and dessert from the Teppanyaki A la Carte menu.

*Main course is a must for all Teppanyaki diners as it is a live cooking show

HOW IT WORKS

1. The starters and desserts will be prepared in the main kitchen and served on the teppanyaki table.
2. Choose your protein for your mains (sauce options can be discussed with the chef while cooking).
3. Your chef will introduce and confirm your mains and begin the show.
4. Your egg fried rice and vegetables will be prepared first, followed by your choice of protein.
5. We will be serving the mains and the accompaniments at the same time to enjoy your teppanyaki meal

*No dietary restrictions will be accommodated in the Teppanyaki experience due to the risk of cross contamination, though no nuts are used in any of our dishes
